

Terms and conditions: Polly Hutson Physiotherapy (Small animal clinic - Lambourn)

Health and safety are of the utmost importance to Polly Hutson Physiotherapy. During your initial assessment or meeting you will be made aware of safety requirements. Please follow these. They are in place for the safety of everyone involved and it is your responsibility to adhere to them.

Whilst every care is taken to ensure the maintenance and safety of equipment at the clinic dogs attending clinic do so at their owner's risk.

Veterinary consent must be obtained prior to commencing any assessment or treatment; this is in accordance with the Veterinary Surgeons Act.

All sessions are payable by BACS or cash within 30 days.

Sessions cancelled with less than 24 hours' notice and failure to turn up for an appointment will be charged in full. This includes new assessments and follow-ups.

If your animal is unwell, please let us know at least 24 hours prior to your session and we can make an appropriate plan. It may not be appropriate for your animal to have a physiotherapy session.

If any aspect relating to the health or medical management of your animal has changed it is your responsibility to let your physiotherapist know before the session gets underway.

All dogs must be on the lead at all times and under control at the clinic.

If your dog is reactive with other dogs or people, please let us know at time of booking and I will do all I can to make the experience as calm as possible for your dog.

If you think your dog is likely to be reactive during the session, please bring a muzzle with you. If you do not have a muzzle and the physiotherapist feels that the dog requires a muzzle I reserve the right to use one of our own muzzles during the assessment.

Polly Hutson Physiotherapy cannot be held responsible for any loss or damage to vehicles or personal property whilst attending appointments.

I confirm that I have read and understood these terms and conditions and agree to adhere to them:
